Inheritance Notices

Start of publication: 28.10.2009

In the proceedings before Sirje Orman, a notary of Tallinn, 09.10.2009. is the case of the succession of deceased MIHHAIL MURNIKOV (d.o.b. 27.11.1928. a., personal identification No 32811270212). The envisaged date for issuing the certificate of succession is 11.01.2010.

By the above date, please inform the notary of all persons entitled to the succession and of the identity of those entitled to the succession. In the case of the succession of MIHHAIL MURNIKOV, there is a mutual will of notarised spouses, to which persons who would have inherited in the event of a legal succession and other persons having a legitimate interest, who have information as to the place where the testator's will will be located or who are in possession of the testator's will, please submit to the notary Sirje Orman, without delay, the testator's will or information as to the place where the testator's will will be located. Persons entitled to the estate who wish to renounce the estate must, at the latest within three (3) months of becoming aware or having to become aware of the death of the deceased and of their right of succession, make a notarial declaration to that effect to the notary. If the heir does not renounce the inheritance within the abovementioned period, he shall be deemed to have received the inheritance. If the heir wishes to have his particulars entered on the certificate of succession, he must make himself known to the notary before the planned date of issue of the certificate of succession. On the planned date of issue of the certificate of succession, a certificate of succession shall be issued in respect of the heirs whose particulars are known to the notary, whose right of succession and scope have been established and who have not renounced the succession.
